

Rubrics of Final Project Presentation

1. Introduction (20 pts)
 - Is the background of the problem effectively described?
 - Is the problem clearly defined?
 - How significant is the problem?
 - Review of related works?

2. Method (25 pts)
 - Is the motivation of the used method sufficiently presented?
 - Are the details of the used method clearly presented?

3. Results (30 pts)
 - Are the developed methods properly evaluated?
 - Are the quantitative/qualitative results sufficient to support conclusions?
 - Insightful analysis and discussion about the methods and results?
 - Have the results been successfully submitted to the challenge website?

4. Presentation style (15 pts)
 - Targeted to audience?
 - Professional and engaging?
 - Clear and concise?
 - Have the questions been handled properly?

5. Is the team engaging with the presentations of other teams? Have they asked relevant and meaningful questions? (10 pts)