

Rubrics of Final Project Report

1. Introduction (30 pts)
 - Is the background of the problem effectively described?
 - Is the problem clearly defined?
 - How significant is the problem? Use tables or plots to help illustrate if possible.
 - Are relevant works accurately cited?
2. Method (30 pts)
 - Is the motivation of the used method sufficiently presented?
 - How is the proposed method solving the defined problem?
 - Are the details of the used method clearly presented?
3. Results (30 pts)
 - Are the developed methods properly evaluated?
 - Are the quantitative/qualitative results sufficient to support conclusions?
 - Insightful analysis and discussion about the methods and results?
 - Have the results been successfully submitted?
4. Presentation style (10 pts)
 - Writing carefully and professionally?
 - Proper use of figures and tables?
 - Language clear and concise with no grammatical problems?